

Dig Afognak is a cultural immersion experience curated for participants to connect to the land, learn Afognak people's history, and cultural values. These 5-day camps are located at our remote site on Afognak Island.

This year's theme is Nunamek which means "from the land or of the land", focusing on our cultural respect and relation to the land, learning to live from it and to protect our resources for future generations.

Dig Afognak Facilities and Environmental Conditions Acknowledgment

Dig Afognak is remotely located on Afognak Island, with boat access only. Our limited facilities include the following:

- No running water
- No electricity
- Unpredictable weather conditions
- The only means of transportation to camp is by charter boat (45 minutes) through Anton Larsen Bay, weather permitting
- Bathroom facilities are limited to nuus'hniit (rustic outhouses)
- The only option for washing is a banya, which has high temperatures
- The distance between cabins, activities, and the mess hall is roughly a quarter of a mile on gravel paths
- Participants will be required to board and exit a boat

_____ (please initial) I am physically fit to withstand the rigors of an Alaskan wilderness experience where the possibility of inclement weather, travel, manual labor, and camp conditions may pose personal challenge.

It is a privilege to attend the Dig Afognak camps and all campers should come with the intention of having fun, learning new things, and getting along with everyone!

Occasionally, there may be a camper who makes camp unpleasant for others because of their harsh words or actions. If any problems arise, this agreement informs the camper upfront, of the potential consequences and holds them accountable for the poor choices they made at camp.

1. I will be polite and respectful to everyone at camp (fellow campers, staff, visitors, presenters, and volunteers). I will participate in all the activities unless physically unable to do so and the Camp Manager has agreed with my inability to participate.
2. If someone at camp is bothering or hurting me in any way, I will inform the Camp Manager immediately so I can concentrate on having fun and learning.
3. I will try to solve the smaller problems myself by following these choices:
 - Tell them to stop
 - Walk away
 - Share and take turns
 - Ignore it
 - Talk it out
 - Apologize
 - Walk away, wait and cool off

I have read this agreement and discussed it with my parent/guardian and participant.

Bullying will not be tolerated. Campers involved in bullying of other children or unsafe behavior may be sent home from camp early. Please note that transportation from camp to town, outside of our scheduled charters, is at the cost of the camper/parents.

My signature is a pledge to always follow and support the rules of Dig Afognak.

This page is only required for those traveling from outside of Kodiak for Dig Afognak

Quyanaa (thank you) for signing up and wanting to participate in our Dig Afognak camps. Dig Afognak will offer you a unique experience. We have been in operation for over 20 years and our continued success is due to eager participants who love to learn, community volunteers, Elders and culture bearers. It is our goal to make your travel to and from Kodiak easier and your stay at Dig Afognak a worthwhile experience.

To accomplish this, we have set forth a few agreements that need to be made for youth coming to Kodiak to have a smooth transition and make sure all their needs are met.

1. Traveling to and from Kodiak:

- i. Parents/guardians are responsible for all travel (airfare or ferry) to and from Kodiak. NVA staff needs copies of travel itineraries at least one week prior to camp starting to plan for and confirm participation of your child at Dig Afognak.
- ii. Transportation to and from the airport or ferry office: NVA has a limited staff that not only coordinates the logistics of camp but also fulfills normal day-to-day duties. We can't guarantee the availability of transporting your child to NVA offices or back to the airport/ferry office. We ask that if you have someone in town that can transport your child, you confirm that first, if you have no one else, please confirm with our staff at least one week prior to camp starting.
- iii. Getting weathered in Kodiak: Kodiak's weather is unpredictable throughout the year. Our staff is not equipped to chaperone youth if they get weathered in Kodiak. Please confirm with NVA staff at least one week prior to camp starting as to what your weathered out plan is for your child. We are unable to confirm your child's participation without this plan in place. In addition, we need all contact information for any adults responsible for your child while in Kodiak.
- iv. Food money: Please send your child a little bit of cash to purchase meals or pack snacks ahead of time. Often time's youth arrive a couple of hours prior to heading to camp and are hungry. If NVA must purchase meals for your child, you will be responsible for reimbursing NVA once camp is complete.

2. After camp is complete:

- i. Lost and found items are collected by camp staff, transported to Kodiak, and washed by NVA staff. We hold items for 30 days and all items not claimed after that date will be donated to a local charity.
- ii. If your child forgets any items at camp, please contact our office immediately. If we can locate the lost items, we will do our best to get them to you. Any cost incurred by transporting these items will be paid prior to transportation.

I, the undersigned, agree to the terms and conditions set forth in this agreement.

My signature is a pledge to always follow and support the rules of Dig Afognak.

Dig Afognak Assumption of Risk and Release of Liability

1. Acknowledgement of Risk. Attendants of Dig Afognak engage in all kinds of outdoor wilderness activities that include hiking through wilderness and rocky tidal beaches, running, swimming, riding vehicles on the beach and along unpaved wilderness trails, boating, harvesting and preparing wild fish and game for consumption, discharging firearms, using sharp tools and knives, sheltering outdoors in tents and rustic cabins, using banyas. Dig Afognak is in a remote location that is only accessible via boat or float plane, and its facilities and equipment are not consistently maintained year-round. I recognize that there is a significant element of risk involved in attending Dig Afognak and engaging in outdoor wilderness activities, including but not limited to inclement weather, slips, trips, falls, sprains, scratches, bruises, broken bones, cuts, contusions, splinters, burns, smoke inhalation, compression injuries, animal attacks, insect bites, heat stroke, exhaustion, dehydration, getting lost, infection, bleeding, shock, capsizing, drowning, hypothermia, allergic reactions, loss of or damage to personal property, gunshot wounds, delayed medical attention, and, possibly, death.

2. Assumption of Risk. I understand that outdoor wilderness activities can be hazardous. I understand that my and my minor child/children's participation in outdoor wilderness activities at Dig Afognak will expose us to a variety of dangers that are an inherent part of Dig Afognak activities and cannot be eliminated without destroying the unique nature of the experience we are seeking through attendance at Dig Afognak. I understand that because of Dig Afognak's remote location, adequate medical or emergency care is not readily available if I or one of my minor children sustains any injury or requires medical attention of any kind. I understand and acknowledge that I and my minor child/children are participating in outdoor wilderness activities at Dig Afognak voluntarily and with the knowledge of the potential risks involved, up to and including grievous bodily injury and death. I hereby accept any and all risks of injury or death to myself and my minor child/children arising out of or in any way connected with our engagement in activities at Dig Afognak and our use of Dig Afognak's facilities and equipment.

3. Release and Indemnification. On behalf of myself and my minor children, I hereby voluntarily release, forever discharge, and agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Native Village of Afognak and Afognak Native Corporation and all of their agents, contractors, officers, directors, employees, and assigns from any and all claims, demands, causes of action, losses or damages of any kind which are in any way connected with my or my minor child/children's attendance at Dig Afognak, participation in any activities at Dig Afognak, and use of Dig Afognak's facilities and equipment. This includes any such claims which allege negligent acts or omissions of Dig Afognak's agents, contractors, officers, directors, employees, and assigns. This also includes any such claims, demands, or causes of action which allege negligent acts or omissions of other Dig Afognak participants, including campers, campers' parents, Elders, presenters, volunteers, and counselors. I understand that this release does not prospectively waive any claim I or my minor child/children may have against Dig Afognak for reckless or intentional misconduct.

4. Responsibility for Medical Costs and Fees. I understand that Dig Afognak is in a remote location with no immediate access to medical facilities, medical treatment, or medical personnel. If I or my minor child/children require medical care or are evacuated from Dig Afognak for any reason whatsoever, I consent to our receiving emergency medical treatment as Dig Afognak deems may be necessary, and I agree to pay for and be responsible for all costs and fees connected with such evacuation and medical care.

5. Authorization to Use Image and Recordings. I consent to the use, publication, and display, by or on behalf of the Native Village of Afognak and Afognak Native Corporation, of any photographs, video or digital image and any reproduction thereof, and any audio recordings taken of me or my minor child/children during the Dig Afognak program, for any promotional, informational, and educational purposes. I understand that I will receive no compensation for the use of these images and recordings.

6. Voluntary Signature. I have read, understand, and accept the terms of this waiver and release. I am aware that this is a legal, binding document giving up legal rights, and I sign it voluntarily. I understand I can decline to sign this waiver and release and not participate in Dig Afognak and its related outdoor wilderness activities. I have read, understand, and accept the terms and conditions stated in this waiver and release and acknowledge that it shall be binding upon me, my minor child/children, my heirs, my personal representatives, and my estate.

COVID-19 Prevention & Mitigation

Hand washing stations are set up in two locations at Dig Afognak. Participants are encouraged to use the handwashing stations or hand sanitizer (readily available in most buildings) often, especially after using the nuus'hniik and before eating.

Dig Afognak will provide masks and/or tests for all participants when requested and/or necessary.

If you have any questions or concerns, please let us know. We will follow the latest guidance from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

Illness and Injury Procedures

If a camper experiences a more serious illness such as an onset of fever, serious cough, severe pain, etc., they may be tested for Covid-19 and isolated from other campers. If the camper tests positive for Covid, they may be sent home to reduce the spread and allow for healing. Medicines may be offered and administered to campers by the Camp Manager.

If anyone at camp is injured, camp staff will administer first aid and/or CPR to injured persons. When serious injuries occur, camp staff will stabilize and administer care until the injured person is in the care of Kodiak's first responders or the hospital.

If the Camp Manager determines a camper needs urgent medical attention, the parents or guardians of the camper will be contacted. In the case of a critical emergency, the United States Coast Guard will be dispatched by staff. The camper's emergency contact will be called to communicate the treatment/extraction plan.

Transportation from camp to town, outside of our scheduled charters, is at the cost of the camper/parents.
